Arizona's State Wildlife Action Plan

What is it?

It is a 10-year vision for managing Arizona's fish, wildlife, and natural habitats...

...and it shares many of the same elements and concepts with other Wildlife Action Plans across the nation.

Developed as Part of a National Effort

- In the early 2000's, a coalition of Federal and State resource agencies, sportsman and conservation groups, non-governmental organizations, businesses, and private citizens joined forces to get the U.S. Congress to provide more funding for wildlife and habitat conservation

How is it used?

1. Funding - State Wildlife Grant (SWG) program
2. Collaborative Wildlife Conservation

The U.S. Congress mandated that each State and Territory develop their own Wildlife Action Plans in order to be eligible for SWG monies

By October 2005, all 56 States and Territories had completed and submitted their plans to the National Advisory Acceptance Team for approval

The Department's Funding Sources

$1.5 – 1.75 million annually to Arizona from SWG

Various State funds and in-kind contributions used to match Federal monies and cost-share grants

No State General Funds

* Amounts reported from FY08 annual report, rounded up

Conservation

The basic tenets of the State Wildlife Grant program

- Support conservation efforts that preclude the need to list species under the ESA
- Help keep common species common
- Engage the public and partners in wildlife and habitat conservation

Eight Common Elements for each Wildlife Action Plan

- 1) Fish and Wildlife Species
- 2) Habitats and Their Condition
- 3) Threats and Info Needs
- 4) Conservation Actions and Objectives
- 5) Monitoring and Evaluation
- 6) Review Process
- 7) Coordination with Land Management Entities
- 8) Broad Public Participation
